DETROIT AND BUFFALO.

THE NEW AND MAGNIFICENT STEAMERS PLYMOUTH ROCK, WESTERN WORLD, and MISSISSIPPI will form the line between the above ports, commencing running immediately upon the opening of navigation, as follows:

PLYMOUTH ROCK, P. J. RALPH, Commander. Will leave Detroit—Mondays and Thursdays. Buffalo—Tuesdays and Fridays.

WESTERN WORLD, J. S. RICHARDS, Commander. Will leave Detroit—Wednesdays and Saturdays. Buffalo—Sundays and Thursdays.

MISSISSIPPI, A. C. LASLEY, Commander. Will leave Detroit—Tuesdays and Fridays. Buffalo—Wednesdays and Saturdays.

These steamers are all new, of the largest class, being about 1300 tons each. The Mississippi has just been the recipient of great expenditure and capability. They are fitted up and furnished for the convenience and comfort of a style of comfort and luxury, entirely unknown to any of the other steamers that ply upon the Western Waters.

For the transportation of Freight, the line will surpass anything ever before offered to the public, being arranged across with partners between Chicago and New York, and all points west of Buffalo to St. Louis, which will enable us to forward goods and merchandise with greater dispatch than has ever yet been attained.

For the transportation of Cattle these steamers offer facilities to drovers which cannot be surpassed by any other line.

Shippers of merchandise from the East should specify "Transfer to the care of C. L. Wimans, Buffalo," and those from the West, should be to the care of John Stanton, Freight Agent, Detroit.

C. B. SWAIN, Agent.

NEW LINE OF PROPELLERS.

Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago Line.

1857.

During the season of Lake navigation of 1857, the following has been the arrangement will run between Buffalo and Chicago, touching at Cleveland and intermediate ports, leaving every Lake Erie port regardless of weather, as the season prepares:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Propeller FOUNTAIN CITY, | 800 tons burthen. | |
| Do GALENA, | 750 | do |
| Do BALTIC, | 750 | do |
| Do TENDUCA, | 600 | do |
| Do WENONA, | 600 | do |
| Do EVERGREEN CITY, | 400 | do |
| Do CHICAGO, | 400 | do |
| Do ERSKINE, | 400 | do |

All of the above steamers are new, having been built within the past year, are fitted up for the Lake trade, and are of great strength of hull, and power of engine, the smallest of which is of 400 tons burthen, and the largest of 800 tons burthen, many other boats.

They have been fitted up with all the modern improvements introduced for the safety of passengers and freight, and accommodations for passengers are unsurpassed by any steamers. Attention from the charterers, owners and consignees of vessels, to insure dispatch and low freight, will be given by the owners of the above line of steamers.

The time of sailing of the line will run in port on or about the 15th of May.

United States Mint.

In the annual report of the Director of the mint, on the operations of that institution during the year 1856, we find many curious as well as useful statistics. The amount of gold and silver bullion received during the year at the mint and its branches, including the assay office, was $60,190,036 63. The coinage at New Orleans has declined year by year; it reached in 1851, $10,122,000, while during the past calendar year it was very little over $3,000,000.

The coinage at all the mints for the year 1856, including bars, was as follows: gold coins $36,697,778 50; silver coins, $5,135,240; copper coins, $27,106 78; gold bars, $22,645,596 85; silver bars, $61,430 17. Total amount of coinage, including bars $64,567,142 20. The number of pieces of coin struck were 33,863,847; the number of gold and silver bars, 7,119.

The most interesting feature of the report is the following table of entire deposit of domestic gold since the year 1790:

| | |
|---|---|
| From Virginia | $1,406,749 49 |
| North Carolina | 4,645,326 17 |
| South Carolina | 1,790,351 46 |
| Georgia | 4,678,024 15 |
| Tennessee | 30,780 42 |
| Alabama | 832,426 49 |
| New Mexico | 40,000 00 |
| California | 39,782,000 00 |
| Other sources | 166,161 00 |
| Total | $53,000,713 18 |

During the past four years twenty-five millions worth of silver have been coined to take the place of the old Spanish coins.

The mint is now made fire-and-burglar-proof, and all the departments so systematized as to perform any amount of coinage requisite.

Regeneration of Virginia.

We see it stated among the foreign items in our New York files that the Turkish government has invited colonies of Christian emigrants to settle upon Turkish soil for the purpose of reclaiming the impoverished and worn out land, and introducing Christian arts, manufactures and usages among the idle and wasted people—an example of Pagan liberality which Virginia does not seem inclined to imitate. EDWARD TRAYNER, the well known pioneer in associated emigration, proposes in the name of the law and the profits, to undertake the regeneration of Virginia by sending, under the auspices of the company of which he is the head, a few swarms of free laborers to take possession of her barren fields and make them "Honor like the rose—to grub up the briars and clear out the thickets which have over-run half of the Old Dominion—to confine in luxurious pastures that herd of "stamp-tailed steers" that Gov. WISE has visions of—to rouse up the people by examples of profitable industry—to introduce to the notice of the first families other kinds of business more honorable and remunerative than nigger-breeding—to provide the means of paying onerous taxes and the enormous State debt—to finish the lagging works of internal improvement and to infuse new life, vigor, energy and productiveness into State and municipal affairs. But Virginia objects. Less liberal than Turkey—though quite as much in need, she bristles up and declares that the invasion of Christians—men who do not buy, sell and breed human beings, and who know nothing of seraglios—shall be prevented, by arms, if necessary. But the great Northern hive is swarming, free laborers are gathering around the industrial leader like bees which they resemble in capacity for toil, and are preparing to make the long expected descent upon the places which the rush from Virginia leaves vacant. Sound the alarm, WISE! seize your lances, PRYOR, FITZHUGH, RITCHIE and be ready to receive the invaders upon their points! Nigger breeding is in danger.

We publish two extracts this morning having a direct bearing upon this great subject—the Mormon colonization—one embodying a few facts in relation to the constant emigration from, and the other indicative of a vast immigration to the Old Dominion—one from the New York Morning Post, and the other, EDWARD TRAYNER's second letter, from the New York Herald, both of which our readers will study attentively in reference to the solution of the problem yet to be worked out. They will see that Virginia like Turkey has gone into a decline from which nothing but the infusion of new blood can arouse her; that the dominant caste in the one as in the other has ridden industry so hard that it yields under the burden, and is no longer productive. The slave-driver's whip proves to be as valueless in quickening labor as is the bastinado, no matter how vigorously wielded. They will see that in Virginia, as in Turkey, there are symptoms of discontent, though differently manifested—that a class not yet dead to aspirations for a life in which freedom of thought and action go hand in hand, show indications of revolt. In Turkey, the popular ennui, in which an Ago or a Pasha, and a few score of turbaned soldiers may be put to death, is the remedy. Virginians migrate to get beyond the evils that the policy of the State forbids them to cure.

Between Christian colonies in the dominions of the Sultan, and Christian colonies in Virginia, where man-breeding for the market is the great industrial pursuit, we do not see but that civilization is advancing on both continents. Praise the Lord, and send in the colonists!

New York Times.

The New York Times has been pursuing a singular course of late. Both its editor and Washington correspondent seem to be under BUCHANAN mesmeric influence. It is now quoted by the Charleston Mercury, St. Louis Republican, Chicago Times, and journals of that pro-slavery school; and from its columns they are bolstering themselves up with what the "New York Times" says, and what the "New York Times" thinks.

It is abusing and trudging the Free State people of Kansas because they refuse to put their necks into the halter proposed for them by the usurpers. What do Republicans who have been supporting the Times think of such talk as this, which we extract from its issue of the 8th inst.:

Taken in connection with the attitude of renewed resistance to the authorities which the Free State men, in Kansas, are assuming—the earnestness with which political leaders and presses in the Northern and Eastern States, are urging them to decline all participation in the election, and to get of Governor the Territorial authorities, and the indication, on the other side, of the purpose of the Pro-Slavery faction to take advantage of these circumstances and push their cause home to speedy issue—the—it cannot fail to have a disastrous effect upon the condition and prospects of Kansas.

Here we have the regular Border Ruffian slang about "renewed resistance" to the "authorities" in Kansas; "setting at defiance the Territorial authorities," &c. This is just the way "Squatter Sovereign" and Dave Atchison, the Richmond Enquirer and Dr. Stringfellow talk—the same style of lingo precisely.

The Buffalo Express, referring to the treasonous course of the Times, remarks:

Before the election, its estimate of the sincerity and honesty of the new President was anything but flattering. It raked up his speeches, letters, and public acts, and showed in vehement strong terms the active Southern sympathies of the "Sphinx of Bachelors Hall." It gave him especially no credit for stamina or firmness. No sooner is he in the Chair that the tide is turned. It belabors him with flowery adjectives—now a thousand merits, when all before was worthless. Was it the fulsome gushing of a mind conscious of its that fulsome gushing of a mind conscious of its own baseness and disgusting. A few weeks since it treated the unfortunate publication of the President-elect's letter to Kansas, and that other of Buchanan's letter to the unfortunate Stanton—now it blows hot and cold alternately; at one moment Gov. Geary is the man of all others to hold the prominent position of Governor of that unfortunate Territory—he has proved himself, by vacillating, to be the man for the place. But the purpose sought is not thereby served, and preparations are now nearly made to open the Kansas and Nebraska Territories for a passage where no foreigner was ever suffered to approach.

The regard we have in the bonafidenest of Caution, the destruction of the forts and defences, the breach of the peace, the irruption into the palace, the pillage of the city, the paltry and cowardly outrage of a defenceless population, and the general conflagration of five thousand buildings.

And what is all this for? What public end justifies the employment of force in the application of the one and of treachery and treachery in the other? Have matters so stood between the two peoples that the only means of reconciliation and mutual good understanding between them lay in the application of force? Is it the fact that there was a necessity of deeds manifested to the end in the price of passage?

After Sir Harry Smith, after Sir Hildebrand, after a whole series of Governors, Governor Geary comes to Malta, and, in the short space of a few days, he has succeeded in reconciling the two parties, and in establishing a Government which, if it be not the best, is at least one which, in the circumstances, is the most suitable. Nothing can be more different than the conduct of Sir Harry Smith and Governor Geary. The former, with the sword in his hand, and the Queen's name on his lips, marched into the Island, and, by the mere force of his presence, he
